

Smart Sensors

Crossfire Technology integrates multiple smart sensors in rugged housings that continuously monitor UV dose, lamp intensity, and net UV transmittance for optimum performance.

Operators can stay informed about their UV system through onboard data logging with optional 4-20 mA and Modbus outputs, visual and audible alarms for event notifications, and self-diagnostics troubleshooting.

Crossfire smart sensors eliminate nuisance alarms and help to minimize downtime.

